Gatsby Benchmark 1

A stable careers programme

Your institution or organisation has met 100% of the 8 assessment areas in Gatsby Benchmark 1.

These questions are about Gatsby Benchmark 1: A stable careers programme.

Institutions and organisations should have an embedded programme of careers education and guidance that is known and understood by learners, parents and carers, staff, governors, employers and other agencies.

Question:	Achieved?
1.1 Does your specialist setting have a trained Careers Leader?
1.2 Does your specialist setting have a careers programme that aligns with the following guidelines?
Is tailored to the needs of all learners, including disadvantaged young people?
Has the explicit backing of your organisation's governance structures (where applicable)?
Is underpinned by learning outcomes and sequenced appropriately for your cohort of young people?
Is linked to the whole institution's development plan?
Sets out how parents and carers will be engaged with careers education?
Has the explicit backing of the headteacher?

1.3 Does your specialist setting publish your careers programme on your website?

1.3.1 Is the information about your careers programme on your website communicated in ways that enable different groups to engage with it?

1.4 Is your careers programme communicated in different formats (beyond text on the website) so that it's accessible to users with different needs?

1.5 Does your specialist setting regularly evaluate your careers programme?

1.5.1 In the last 12 months, have you made any changes to your careers programme as a result of past evaluations?

1.6 Does evaluation of your careers programme take into account feedback from the following groups?

Gatsby Benchmark 2

Learning from careers and labour market information

Your institution or organisation has met 100% of the 6 assessment areas in Gatsby Benchmark 2.

These questions are about Gatsby Benchmark 2: Learning from career and labour market information.

All learners, parents and carers, teachers and staff who support learners should have access to good quality, up-to-date information about future pathways, study options and labour market opportunities. Young people with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) and their parents and carers may require different or additional information. All learners will need the support of an informed adviser to make the best use of available information.

Question:

Achieved?

2.1 Approximately what proportion of learners have access to careers information, or information on progression pathways, during the Key Stages offered by your specialist setting?

Key Stage 3

Key Stage 4

2.2 To what extent are you confident that your learners and their parents and carers are supported to use this information to inform decisions on their career or progression pathway?

2.3 Which of the following statements are true of the careers, progression pathways and labour market information available in your specialist setting?

2.4 Does your specialist setting support parents and carers to access information about study options, career and progression pathways, and the labour market, where appropriate?

2.5 Does your specialist setting actively encourage and support parents and carers to have meaningful careers conversations with the young people in their care?

2.6 What proportion of staff (including teachers and other staff who support learners) have access to up-to-date information about transition pathways, study options, and labour market opportunities?

Gatsby Benchmark 3

Addressing the needs of each young person

100%

Your institution or organisation has met 100% of the 11 assessment areas in Gatsby Benchmark 3.

These questions are about Gatsby Benchmark 3: Addressing the needs of each young person.

Learners have different careers guidance needs at different stages. Careers programmes should help learners navigate their concerns about any barriers to career progression or progression pathways. In addition, opportunities should be tailored to the needs of each learner, including any additional needs of vulnerable and disadvantaged learners, young people with SEND and those who are persistently absent.

Question:	Achieved?
3.1 How strongly do you agree or disagree with the following statements about your careers programme?
Our careers programme actively seeks to raise the aspirations of all learners
Our careers programme challenges misconceptions and stereotypical thinking (e.g., related to gender, socioeconomic status)
Our careers programme showcases a diverse range of role models
